Final Remarks/ Benediction

MAMA

Mama, you raised good kids

We made Jesus our choices

Pastors, Preachers, Teachers, Writers, Poets With beautiful singing voices.

Mama, you did good

You gave birth to royalty

Kings and queens are born of you

A crown of Glory to you are we.

Mama, hold your head up

Be proud of yourself too

God did us all a favor

When he gave us you.

Mama, you be encouraged

Gods gonna make it all right

Morning sun will surely come

After this dark night

- Albertine Williams

GIRLFRIEND

Hey Girlfriend! There is not going to be a day that goes by that I won't be thinking of you. If we were the same age, we would have been running buddies. You are the daughter that God blessed me with.

Love, Ruth

From Glory, To Glory....

Gracie Lee Cobb was born May 4, 1928 in Vicksburg, Mississippi.

She was the second oldest child born to Martha and Jim Moore. Gracie attended public schools in Arkansas and often bragged about her accomplishments as a basketball star. She was preceded in death by her parents, a brother, her daughter (Willa Marie) and her husband.

Gracie met and married Elvin Rhone Sr. To this union eight children were born. God blessed that union and her children are saved and working in ministry today. The Lord drew Gracie into holiness through her '54 highway experience. Although living in poverty during this time, God visited her through vivid and sometimes "bone chilling" dreams and visions. Gracie finally said "yes" to God and led her children into holiness and out of poverty with her. They were devout members of the Holy Temple Church of God In Christ; pastured by Elder Thomas Laflora in Dumas, Arkansas.

While raising her children, Gracie has been known to take other children into her home to assist them in any way possible. Her relentless faith and enduring strength in God made it possible for her to triumph over the many sufferings in her life. Gracie was quite a prayer labourer and was often guilty of visiting the sick to minister the word, singing songs and whatever she could to care for them. Gracie later moved to Los Angeles, California where she met and married Robert Cobb. They both were devoted members and served faithfully at the House of Hope COGIC, Pastor Dorris Murphy.

After the Lord called both her Pastor and husband home, Gracie decided to move to Kansas City where she could be closer to her children and grandchildren.

From Glory, To Glory....

She became a member of her son's church (A long time dream of hers). Gracie served faithfully at the Power Realm Church in Kansas City, Kansas until she decided to go home and be with the Lord. Gracie's bitter suffering in this present world cannot be compared to the Glory that is now revealed to her. Gracie said, "you don't know what it is like to not be able to do anything for yourself."

2 Corinthians 5:8 says, we are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. With this scripture in mind and after an extended period of suffering, Gracie made her decision to go home and be with the Lord on Saturday, February 11, 2006, at 6:40 pm. She made her departure in the presence of her pastor and oldest child, Elder Elvin Rhone Jr., and her youngest child, Albertine Williams. They prayed and sang songs and hymns as the angels from glory ushered Gracie to her new home, she exclaimed "How beautiful!"

She leaves her family to cherish her memory: eight children; Pastor Elvin Rhone Jr. (Evangelist Betty); Evangelist Evalyn Johnson-Sowells (Superintendent Frank); Jimmie Neal Rhone; Thomas Clinton Rhone (Rosalyn); Don Tracy Rhone (Ruth Ann); Timothy Rhone (Kimiko); Albertine Williams; Geneva Franklin-Cobb; A special son, Elder Henry Williams. She passes her legacy to thirty grandchildren and nineteen great grandchildren. Her siblings fondly remember her as Gra'-Lee; Carrie Lee Murray; Robert Murray (Patricia); Darnell Murray (Edna); Ora Carlisle of Chicago, Illinois. A host of Nieces, nephews, church family, and friends will cherish Gracie Cobb's memory.
